

The Daily Gazetteer.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1744.

arriv'd the Mails from Holland and Flanders.

Moscow, May 25.

Few Days ago her Imperial Majesty's Master of the Horse caused several Hundred Foals, and young Horses of between three and four Years old, to pass in Review before the Czarina, and a great Number of Persons of Distinction. They were of the Persian, Arabian, Turkish, Spanish, English, and other Breeds; so that a finer Sight, or one that did Honour to the Imperial Stud, was never seen: her Majesty seem'd to be extremely pleas'd with the Friday her Majesty was present at the Deliberation of the Senate, which lasted from Ten in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon. Yesterday being Sunday, her Imperial Majesty was at the Church of St. Isaac, where all the Court follow'd, and made a magnificent Appearance. This Day being the Anniversary of the Formation of the Guards of Ismailow, her Majesty, dress'd in the Uniform of that Regiment, receiv'd the Compliments of the Court upon that Occasion: and entertain'd, at Noon, the Officers of that Regiment at her own Table.

June 11. His Excellency General Keith, arriv'd to his Majesty, that he has Orders from the Czar of Russia, to hold all her Forces in this Kingdom ready to march on the 10th Instant. His Excellency has given the like Notice to the Officers of those Regiments; but it is very far from being certain, for what Part of the World they are destin'd. It is not even known, that the General and Commander in Chief is in the Army; but it is said to have received Orders which are not up, with Instructions not to open them, till within four Days of their Embarkation. In one Thing, however, most of the Politicians agree; that these Forces are not to return to Russia, but are to be employed in a secret Expedition, in Conjunction with another Corps of Troops that are to march from Lithuania. We have, this very Moment, an Account from the City, that the 23d, at Three in the Afternoon, is fix'd for the Embarkation; and several Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, have been to wait on his Excellency General Keith, in order to wish him a happy Voyage; and some were pleas'd to add, a glorious Campaign.

June 9. The City has lately sent two Deputies to Venice, in order to assure his Majesty of their Fidelity to his Person, and Fidelity to his Government; and an Authentick Testimony of this, they carry with them a Free Gift of no less than 300,000 Ducats. The new-raisd Forces have lately march'd to the Army, and they are to be followed by five more Regiments, and they are to be followed by five more. The City intends to send, shortly, a Deputation to Gaeta, in order to invite the Queen back to this Capital; on the most solemn Assurances of their sacrificing their Lives and Fortunes in her Defence, rather than see her removed to be shut up, as at present, in a Fortress, from a Foreign Army. In the midst, however, of all these Professions of Loyalty, several Hundreds of the Queen of Hungary's Manifestos have been distributed thro' this City; and not distributed only, but in the most publick Places, for which several ordinary People were lately seiz'd by the Officers of Justice. The Mob rising to rescue them, a Company of Guards was brought down, which immediately fired upon them, kill'd several on the Spot, and forc'd the rest to retire in an Instant. This seasonable Severity has kept the City in a quiet ever since.

June 13. The two Armies remain still in the same Position; the Spaniards intrench'd in the Village of Valeri, and the Austrians on the Heights of Faenza. It must be allowed that the former are very strongly fortified, and that the Count de Gages neglects nothing in his Power to fortify, by all Arts possible, those Places that seem almost impregnable by Nature; the Army of the Austrians begins to diminish sensibly, thro' Sickness and Desertion, notwithstanding all possible Precautions are taken to avoid both. This, it is thought, has put Prince Lobkowitz a little out of Humour; who lately sent a very rough Message to his Holiness, importing, that two Gates of this City were necessary for his Security; and desiring they might be instantly put into his Hands. His Holiness caused an extraordinary Congregation of Cardinals to be summon'd, to whom he communicated this untoward Request; and at the breaking up of this Council, a Courier was dispatched to Vienna, to complain of this Outrage; and 4000 Militia were immediately march'd into this City, in order to afford us some Security, if the Austrians should have Recourse to open Force. Prince Lobkowitz has made himself Master of Castel Guilianno; and has detach'd two Corps of Austrian Troops to penetrate into the Kingdom of Naples, where they have been received with the utmost Demonstrations of Joy and Affection; and the Queen of Hungary has been proclaimed Queen of the Two Sicilies with the like Zeal and Transports that were shewn on the proclaiming King Charles a few Years ago.

Milan, June 16. The Count de la Rocca, who commanded in Chief the Sardinian Forces at Oniglia, having on the 9th of this Month received Advice, that the Marquis de los Minos was marching to attack him, with the Forces under his Command, immediately called a Council of War; in which it was unanimously agreed, after reading his Majesty's Instructions, to quit the Place on the Approach of the Spaniards. On the 8th, the Van Guard of the Spanish Army being advanced within four or five Miles of Oniglia, the Count de la Rocca quitted the Place, with the best Part of his Forces, and went to occupy the strong Post of Garesio, where he is at present. He left behind him in Oniglia no more than 500 Regular Troops, 1000 Militia, and two Companies of the Regiment of Savoy; which all retired the same Evening at one Gate, while the Spanish Miquelets entered at the other. On the 9th the Marquis de los Minos arriv'd there, and on the 10th the Infant Don Philip made his Publick Entry into the Place; where, however, he did not continue long, but proceeded to Final; from whence the Genoese Nobility are retired to Sestri. His Sardinian Majesty has thought fit to explain himself upon this Subject, to the Ministers from London and Vienna, in the following Terms. 'That as it was always his Intention to defend every Foot of his Country to the utmost, reserving, however, the Power of uniting his Troops to make a great Stand, on a proper Occasion; he had, within this Fortnight, sent Orders to the Count de la Rocca to defend Oniglia to the last, in case he was sure he could carry off his Troops; but if he found the Enemy were able to cut off his Retreat, he was then to retire, without delay, to Cera. It is in this Place that his Majesty proposes to assemble all the Forces, destin'd for the Defence of the Passes from the County of Nice and the Col de Tende. They will be join'd there by very strong Detachments from the Garisons of Coni, Pignerol, Villeneuve, Asti, Alexandrie, and Turin; his Majesty being determin'd to have a very formidable Army drawn together in this strong Post of Cera, before the Enemy can re-assemble their scatter'd Corps.'

Berlin, June 27. The King has written to all his Ministers at Foreign Courts, to inform them, that he expects, since he has taken Possession of that Principality, the Title of Prince of East Friesland to be given him; as also that of Reigning Duke of Silesia, and Reigning Count of Gluz; which it is not doubted will be complied with, since he is already acknowledged Duke and Count by the Queen of Hungary, and Prince of East Friesland by the States General.

Frankfurt, June 28. Baron Palm, Minister from the Queen of Hungary, arriv'd here the Day before Yesterday from Mannheim, and continued his Journey the same Day for Mentz. Four thousand Austrians are actually retrenched in Heron Island, which lies in the Rhine; the Channel between it and the French Coast being very little above four Yards over, and is sometimes so low, that it is fordable. Col. Menzel would needs sound this Channel with his own Hand, and advancing for this Purpose at the Head of his Hussars, notwithstanding the brisk Fire of the French, received a Shot in the Face, of which he died the next Day.

Ratisbon, June 25. The Austrian Troops who form the Siege of the Castle of Rothenbourg, having forc'd the Retrenchment, made themselves Masters of the Old Town, and then attack'd the Place with the utmost Vigour; but were so unfortunate as to be repuls'd, with the Loss of 400 Men. The Governor of that Fortress has declared he will defend it to the last Extremity; but as the Austrians expect a Reinforcement of 3000 Men, and a Train of heavy Artillery, it is believed, that on their Arrival, he will be oblig'd to change his Sentiments.

Oudenard, June 28. The Marshal Count Saxe, at the Head of 30,000 Men, is very near us; and we make no doubt, that he made this Motion to hinder us from disturbing the Grand Army, while they are employed in pushing their Conquests towards the Sea. The French have actually invell'd Furnes with a Body of Troops, consisting of 21 Bataillons; while the Duke of Boufflers recovers Fort Knocke, which he cannot fail of doing very soon, since he has with him a Train of Artillery capable of reducing it to Ashes.

Hague, July 2. Count Wassenier sets out on a Journey for Lille, in order to carry the Resolutions of the States General, with respect to the last Propositions of Peace, and, in the mean time, Orders are issued for the immediate March of the Second Corps of Auxiliaries, of 20,000 Men, for the Austrian Low Countries. A Courier arriv'd Yesterday from Paris, with Advice, that the Spaniards had abandon'd Oniglia, almost as soon as they took Possession of it, and have quite given over all Thoughts of forcing a Passage into Italy thro' the Dominions of the State of Genoa; which is a Piece of News very unexpected, and not to be accounted for. The Abbe de la Ville has notified to the States General, the Success of an Expedition against Acadia, or Nova Scotia; where he pretends, 1200 English have been taken Prisoners; and that the French are Masters of every Thing there, and in Newfoundland, except Port Royal and Placentia.

Where may be had, A New Method of preventing and curing the Madness caused by the Bite of a mad Dog.

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISTEMPERS

PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISTEMPERS so frequent of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers. It is therefore a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Distempers he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, so that labouring under these miserable Afflictions, may know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients from all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolvement of Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or spasmodic Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and though these Distempers have been of many Years standing, whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, late Drinking, or any other Cause, for it performs all that is wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and replenishes the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and renders the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, and Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, the Palsy and all Paralytick Distempers and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Sign below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London; at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
